

MEYER UNKOVIC SCOTT
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Jason Mettley

Partner

412.456.2843
jm@muslaw.com

Practice Groups

- Employment law & Employee Benefits

Education

- J.D., Widener University School of Law, 1998 – cum laude
- B.A., Allegheny College, 1995 – cum laude

Bar Admissions

- Pennsylvania
- Ohio

Jason Mettley focuses his practice on employee benefits and employment law matters. His work focuses on the representation of multiemployer and single employer employee benefit plans, private and governmental plan sponsors, and individuals. Jason handles matters dealing with plan design, drafting, and compliance with ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, he advises private and public sector employers on compliance with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Representative Matters

- Advising multiemployer plan clients on all facets of plan compliance and administration, including MPRA applications and Retiree Representative representation.
- Representing clients in matters before the Department of Labor and Internal Revenue Service, including audits, examinations, and applications.
- Representing employee benefit plans in ERISA litigation, including interpleader actions to resolve beneficiary disputes and actions to enforce subrogation liens.

Court Admissions

- United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit
- United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania

Professional/Community Involvement

- International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans, Member
- Allegheny County Bar Association, Member
- Pennsylvania Bar Association, Member
- Ohio State Bar Association, Member

Articles/Speaking Engagements

- “Delay in Affordable Care Act Health Coverage Reporting Requirements Announced,” Co-author, MUS Client Advisory, December 30, 2015.
- “Employer Reporting under the Affordable Care Act,” hosted by the Constructors Association of Western Pennsylvania, August 2015.
- “A Look at the PPACA’s Employer Shared Responsibility Payment Rules,” hosted by the Allegheny County Bar Association, February 2014.
- “Practical Implementation of the Affordable Care Act for Small Businesses,” hosted by SMC Business Councils, June 2013.

Additional Information

Jason grew up in York County, Pennsylvania but settled in Pittsburgh in 1998 after graduating from law school. He now lives in Pittsburgh’s Squirrel Hill neighborhood with his wife and two children. As a former college baseball player and lover of the sport, he is (inexplicably) a fan of the Kansas City Royals.