Maxwell Briskman Stanfield is a creative problem solver. His knowledge and experience lend to a range of clients across a number of industries covering a broad spectrum of corporate, business, financial, commercial real estate and entertainment industry transactions.

He regularly assists clients with contract drafting and interpretation; business acquisitions and divestitures; commercial real estate acquisition, disposition, and leasing; financing arrangements (CMBS, traditional bank financing, equity raises); exempt-securities transactions; business entity formation and structure; and nonprofit organization matters. He is also a member of the firm's COVID-19 Small Business Loan Team.

Maxwell also has experience with software licensing agreements as well as master service agreements, terms and conditions, terms of service, and statements of work.

Within his entertainment practice, Maxwell assists production companies, marketing and branding agencies, artists, entertainers, fashion designers, and other creative industry professionals with all aspects of their art form and their business – from advising on general business and intellectual property matters to assisting with any of the needs mentioned above.

Maxwell was voted for inclusion in the inaugural 2021 edition of The Best Lawyers in America: Ones to Watch, for Mergers & Acquisitions Law, and again for the 2022 edition for both Corporate Law and Mergers & Acquisitions Law, an honor based on rigorous peer review, and achieved by less than 1% of all practicing attorneys nationwide.

He is the current Chairperson of the Allegheny County Bar Association's Corporate, Banking & Business Law Section.

Within the firm, he is a member of the Corporate & Business Law, Real Estate & Lending, Intellectual Property, and Nonprofit Practice Groups.
