Daniel is an Associate in Meyer, Unkovic & Scott's Family Law and Litigation & Dispute Resolution Groups. His practice focuses on all areas of family law, including support and alimony hearings, divorce and custody matters, modifications to initial family court orders, name changes, adoptions, and protection from abuse hearings.

Daniel's litigation practice has included participating in court hearings and oral arguments, comprehensive legal research and writing, discovery, depositions, assisting in jury selection, preparing lay and expert witnesses, and dispute resolution through arbitration.

Daniel has been a Solicitor and Hearing Officer for the Clarion County Domestic Relations Section and has been appointed by the Court to be a Divorce Master and to represent individuals in cases involving Children and Youth Services. He has also been appointed as an Arbitrator in addition to acting as the Hearing Officer for mental health hearings at the Clarion County Psychiatric Center.

Daniel and his wife, Jamie, are the proud parents to two children, Dawson and Reese, and have two dogs, Charlie and Cooper. When Daniel is not spending time with family and friends, or chasing his dogs around the yard, he loves to cheer on his beloved Pittsburgh Steelers and Dayton Flyers.
