Grant is Chair of the Real Estate & Lending Group. He counsels clients in every segment of industrial and commercial real estate, such as structuring, negotiation, and documentation of sophisticated real estate transactions, including the acquisition, sale, sale-leaseback, and disposition of real properties. He also advises owners and tenants on leasing agreements, counsels borrowers on financing, and works in tandem with the firm's Corporate and Tax Departments on the real estate components of mergers, acquisitions, and dissolutions. Grant has represented property owners in tax assessment and exemption appeals, has negotiated natural resources leases and acquisitions and advises real estate broker licensing requirements, brokerage agreements and brokers' liens. In addition, he routinely deals with matters involving real estate litigation, real estate workouts, leasehold negotiation, and leasehold workouts.

Grant is frequently selected as a mediator and arbitrator in private disputes and in matters at suit. He is also the longest tenured member of the firm's Management Committee, having served since 2001.
