Jaden Rankin-Wahlers is an Associate in Meyer, Unkovic & Scott's Litigation & Dispute Resolution Group.

Jaden previously worked as an In-house Legal Intern for American Eagle Outfitters, where she was recognized for her contract negotiations, resulting in securing key transportation logistics. Additionally, she assisted with trademark registrations and provided counsel for regulatory compliance standards and spear-headed multi-department policy development initiatives.

Prior to that, Jaden assisted with contract negotiations and complex federal funding regulations while a Legal Extern at the Institute of Museum and Library Sciences in Washington, D.C., and partnered with the F.B.I. through an interdisciplinary team tackling the history and trajectory of domestic terrorism as a Research Associate at the Ridgeway Center for International Security Studies.

Jaden has also worked as a research assistant through the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and was a Court Operations Clerk for the Bucks County Juvenile Probation Court.

Jaden received her J.D. in 2022 from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law and was awarded the Dean's Scholarship, recognized as a Pro Bono Leader, and was named as the Distinguished Public Interest Scholar.

Jaden is a native of Doylestown, Pennsylvania and enjoys spending her free time reading, cooking, and camping.
